Kudos to our district music teachers! December is a traditional time for concerts and our music staff had students ready to perform. This past month featured concert after concert to packed houses of eager parents. You deserve a pat on the back for your planning and execution of wonderful holiday concerts.

JUST ONE THING
After 35 years in education I was asked a tough question recently. If I could have families of K-12 students do just one thing what would that be? Think of the possibilities: reading, homework, or digital research. My answer wasn’t any of those...
